Call for Volunteers – Help Shape the Future of Chemistry in BC!

The Association of the Chemical Profession of British Columbia (ACPBC) is seeking passionate and committed volunteers to support our mission of advancing the professional practice of chemistry across the province.

We are currently looking for volunteers to join the Audit Committee and the Professional Development Committee. Whether you're an experienced P.Chem. or a newer member looking to make a difference, this is your chance to help guide the future of our profession.

Why volunteer with ACPBC?

- ✓ Support and strengthen professional standards in chemistry
- ✓ Connect with other professionals and expand your network
- ✓ Contribute to initiatives that make a lasting impact on science, policy, and education in BC
- ✓ Gain leadership experience and make your voice heard

Time Commitment: approximately, 4–6 hours/month depending on position

Deadline to Apply: May 15, 2026

Requirements: You must be a member of ACPBC in good standing

How to Express Interest: Please email registrar@pchembc.ca with a brief statement of interest and your background.

Questions? We'd love to hear from you — contact us at registrar@pchembc.ca

Let's build the future of chemistry together.
